Learning Objectives

- To host your website using GitHub pages

The rules

You must...

- Have your html file named `index.html` and have this in your root directory
- Organise your directory structure so it's easy to follow

Would be better if...

- Ensure all files and folders named:
  - Using small letters only
  - With no space

GitHub pages setting

Log into your GitHub account and open the repository you want to host
